W O W !!! T O T A L L Y E X C E L L E N T !!! Von Ein Kunde I thoroughly enjoyed this story the plot, the varied and interesting characters were well done, I think I enjoyed reading the Alien view on what humans truly were, to all the pacifists out there, my apologies, but I tend to agree that humans are bloodthirsty and violent as individuals and as a group, our history proves that. The Alien point of view is enlightening maybe we should embrace our violent nature, and stop being in denial, but then again who would want to live in a utopia type setting, sounds boring!!!

Kurzbeschreibung For eons, the Amplitur had searched space for intelligent species, each of which was joyously welcomed to take part in the fulfillment of the Amplitur Purpose. Whether it wanted to or not. When the Amplitur and their allies stumbled upon the races called the Weave, the Purpose seemed poised for a great leap forward. But the Weave's surprising unity also gave it the ability to fight the Amplitur and their cause. And fight it did ? for thousands of years. Will Dulac was a New Orleans composer who thought the tiny reef off Belize would be the perfect spot to drop anchor and finish his latest symphony in solitude. What he found instead was a group of alien visitors ? a scouting party for the Weave, looking for allies among what they believed to be a uniquely warlike race: Humans. Will tried to convince the aliens that Man was fundamentally peaceful, for he understood that Human involvement would destroy the race. But all too soon, it didn't matter.
