der besseren Webers Von Scimitar Mit diesem zweiten Band von "Manticore Ascendant" wird die neue Serie fortgesetzt, der Held des ersten Teils hat es jetzt zum Lieutenant (JG) gebracht. Wieder geht es im Tenor um die Bedrohung des frühen Manticore von außen durch eine Firma in der Solaren Liga, die schon vor Manticore selbst ahnt, dass es ein Wurmloch im Sternensystem gibt. Die Handlung wird einschließlich Weltraumschlachten recht spannend beschrieben, eine wirklich nette Lektüre. Was ich vermisst habe ist ein wenig der Hintergrund, warum einzelne Protagonisten so handeln wie sie es tun - sonst eine Stärke der Weber-Bücher. Bis auf diesen Punkt aber eine wirklich lesenswerte Ergänzung zum Honorverse. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Great read! Von Oliver Below This book meets the very high standard David Weber built in his whole Honorverse series and it is exciting to see how the situation built up to the one found in the first book in the Honorverse 'On Basilisk Station'. I look very much forward to the next installment but also hope the next book continuing the main line of the Honorverse books will come soon as well! 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Great - Greater - Von Gregor Eder - Honor Harrington. Its a great Military-SciFi-Series which mixes military encounters with political fencing. This new Chapter in the great Honorverse looks in to the past of Manticore. When a simple One-Solar-System grows from Backwater-System to great Empire.

Kurzbeschreibung From multiple New York Times best selling author David Weber and #1 New York Times best selling author Timothy Zahn. NEW ENTRY IN BEST-SELLING SERIES. Book #2 in the Manticore Ascendant series, set in David Weber's Honorverse. Lieutenant Travis Long of the Royal Manticoran Navy is the sort of person who likes an orderly universe. One where people follow the rules. Unfortunately, he lives in the real universe. The good news is that Travis is one of those rare people who may like rules but has a talent for thinking outside them when everything starts coming apart. That talent has stood him and the Star Kingdom good stead in the past, and its one reason hes now a mustang, an ex-enlisted man whos been given a commission as a Kings officer. The bad news is that two of the best ways of making enemies ever invented are insisting on enforcing the rules . . . and thinking outside them when other people dont. Travis learned that lesson the hard way as a young volunteer in basic training, and he knows that if he could just keep his head down, turn a blind eye to violations of the rules, and avoid stepping on senior officers toes, hed do just fine. But the one rule Travis Long absolutely cant break is the one that says an officer in the Royal Navy does his duty, whatever the consequences. At the moment, there are powerful forces in the young Star Kingdom of Manticores Parliament which dont think they need him. For that matter, theyre pretty sure they dont need the Royal Manticoran Navy, either. After all, what does a sleepy little single-system star nation on the outer edge of the explored galaxy need with a navy? Unhappily for them, the edge of the explored galaxy can be a far more dangerous place than they think it is. Theyre about to find out why they need the Navy . . . and how very, very fortunate they are that Travis Long is in it. At the publisher's request, this title is sold without DRM (Digital Rights Management). Praise for prequel A Call to Duty: "This exciting book marks the first collaboration of two powerhouses . . . fans of both writers should be quite pleased with the result. Like Robert A. Booklist "A new series set in the universe of Weber's popular heroine Honor Harrington gets off to a solid start. . . . Cowriters Zahn and Weber do an excellent job alluding to events known to longtime fans. . . . [T]his astronomical adventure is filled with . . . intrigue and political drama."
