Von Carola Dunn : A Colourful Death (Cornish Mystery) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A Colourful Death (Cornish Mystery):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Bild der 60er JahreVon Fuchs JoanDie Geschichte hat wirklich eine langsame Gangart, passt vielleicht auch zu der Heldin im Pensionsalter, ist aber deshalb nicht weniger interessant. Hier sind Eleanor und Nick in einen Mord in einer Knstler-"Kommune" involviert und trotz vieler falscher Fhrten findet sich am Schluss dann doch noch der richtige Tter. Gut gemacht, komplex, mit sympathischen Charakteren und viel Lokalkolorit. Sehr gemtlich.

KurzbeschreibungAfter a lifetime of travel and experiences, widow Eleanor Trewynn is more than happy to retire to the sleepy village of Port Mabyn in Cornwall - but unfortunately, excitement seems to follow her around!Her friend and neighbour, artist Nick Gresham, discovers several of his paintings in his shop have been slashed and destroyed. The finger of suspicion rests on rival local artist Geoffrey Monmouth but when Nick and Eleanor go to have it out with him, they find Monmouth's stabbed body in his studio - and Nick is immediately flagged up as most likely suspect. DI Scumble and DS Megan Pencarrow, Eleanor's niece, have been assigned to investigate the murder but Eleanor isn't leaving anything to chance - but once she starts investigating she learns Nick is far from being the only candidate with a compelling motive for murder...Pressestimmen"Adept at showing character through witty dialogue, Dunn paints an amusing picture of a small town that readers will want to visit again soon." - Publishers Weekly on MANNA FROM HADES. "WerbetextThe second in a charming cosy crime series set in 1960's Cornwall featuring amateur sleuth and charity shop worker, Eleanor Trewynn and her westie Teazle.
