Mad as a Hatter!Von Anna SalamatinIf you read the first installment, Get ready, because this one is gonna rock your world.Jenny is grown up, in college and has a mind of her own with a strong will to back it up, and shes still in love with Jake, her brother's partner...and....Jake is still fighting the feelings he has for his partners little sister, so it's no surprise that he wanted to kill the guy he saw trying to force himself on Jenny one night at a club. Jenny was there with her room mates just out to have fun together when Jake spotted her on the dance floor and so did some other jerk who decided she was leaving with him. Jake rescues a very traumatized Jenny, takes her home and stays until she is calm. So, you would think, O K.... Now their together, how nice. Right? Oh, Hell No! Someone's been stalking Jenny, and I mean to tell you that this guy has taken it to extremes. And if that's not bad enough, He is over joyed to learn she knows Jake, his prime target! He promised to get Jake for putting him in prison back in their academy days. They were room mates up until Jake caught him brutalizing a young girl in his room. This turns into a fast paced drama that has it's dark moments but also brings Walter, Jake's father back into his life and we also see Adam and Amanda go to the next level in their relationship and things heat up between Jenny and Jake as they finally admit their true feelings for each other, and I'm talking steamy scenes of romance baby.....but is this sociopath with the "god complex" going to out maneuver Jake, Adam, Walter and the whole security team and snatch Jenny away? And where is Jake's sister, Maddie? She's gone missing...does this mad man have her? Is this more of his revenge? The ending of this installment is the biggest surprise of all!Oh!, were you looking for a happily ever after? All I can say is...the next installment " Fall in Love" can't get here fast enough. Way to leave it hanging Melanie, Well Done!
