Moderner WesternVon KarluusGut geschriebener absoluter Unsinn. Vielleicht etwas zu lang, denn dieses Buch sollte der Leser beendet haben, wenn der Flug, fr den es gedacht war, zu Ende ist.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Nothing out of the ordinary, but quite grippingVon DikassA good plot and skillful writing, that's what makes this novel worth reading. The lack of really original ideas and characters that are easy to understand and therefore not really fascinating makes it a little less enjoyable than it could be, but still a good book for reading on a train or when you're on holiday.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. hunter becomes huntedVon A. BaierReadable for fun, just not my kind of thing, light weight story keeps you turning the pages if short of a pastime. Not blood thirsty, which is a plus in my view.

ProduktbeschreibungDan Hendricks is a man in need of a lifeline. A former CIA operative, he is now an agent for hire by foreign powers on the hunt for dangerous fugitives. Its a lethal world at the best of times, and Dan knows his number is almost up. His next job could be his lastand his next job is his biggest yet.The target sounds trackable enough: Jacques Fillon, who gave up his life trying to save a fellow passenger following a bus crash in northern Sweden. But the man was something of an enigma in this rural community, and his death exposes his greatest secret: Jacques Fillon never existed at all.Dan is tasked with uncovering Fillons true identitybut can he do so before his own past catches up with him?
