Franny, a lively, outgoing and only young woman in a loving and close family (she has two brothers and uncles not much older than her brothers) is a doted upon but not spoiled debutante. 13 years after Devlin Ross, a school friend of her Uncle Rake, spent a summer at her family's home, she meets him at her first ball. She's a bit disappointed that he does not recognize her, so she quickly decides to have her fun, hanging on her Uncle Rake's arm, as though she were his mistress. This sets the tone of this very enjoyable story.

KurzbeschreibungLady Francesca Darling has been in love with Devlin Ross, the Duke of Hereford, since she was five years old. When they meet again at her debutante ball she finds her feelings remain the same, and to her joy he is mesmerized by her. To the gossipy matrons of the ton it's the perfect match--the richest heiress and the most eligible bachelor. But can their budding love survive her interfering family and the deep scars from his father's abuse?

Enchanted as he is with the delightful woman Fanny has become, Devlin intends never to repeat that abuse, vowing not to live with his wife and children. Fanny is a determined young lady -- she wants Devlin and a true marriage. Is her love strong enough to tear down all his walls?
