A wonderful way to end the seriesVon Dorothyanne"Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all. The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle; so I write.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen." so ends the last book of the series, A Gathering of Memories. Ms. Wick outdid herself with this one. The story line was intriguing, and I loved it. I felt sorry for Silas and Amy when they couldn't have children, but they were the answer to the Jackson's prayers. I think I liked Silas best of all the Cameron brothers. He was so quiet, so caring. He was a God-fearing, Lord-loving man with a big heart. Amy was just the right person for him, and they were perfect to take care of Mandy and her siblings. It was so wonderful that Grandma Em and Preston were married, although I never expected it before. This book was a wonderful way to end the series.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. I love this book!Von Ein KundeI have been very attracted to love stories for a while and my mother suggested that I read a Christian love story and I found this book and got hooked. Lori Wick's writing just captivates me into the entire story. In fact I recommend that you read all her stuff. I have read at least ten of her books and loved each and everyone. I also think that her books should be turned into a television series or a movie of some sort. Once again you should all go read this book.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Just finished this wonderful book!Von JoI love Lori Wick's books. And this series is so good. I received the first three for Christmas, and made my husband run out to the bookstore with me to purchase this one! The whole Cameron family (featured in this series) is such a role model for any Christian. Lori Wick has done it again! Her books are so poignant and moving. Makes me reflect on my Christian life and marriage and how I want it to be better.
