KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Eine schne AuswanderungsgeschichteVon TamaraMan denkt an eine einfache Liebesgeschichte - die zwei treffen sich, dann kommt etwas dazwischen, dann sind sie doch zusammen. Im Endeffekt luft es auch so ab, aber die Geschichte ist nicht so einfach gestrickt, nicht so gradlinig, gar nicht kitschig, sondern spannend.Die Hauptpersonen mssen ziemlich oft mit vielen offenen Möglichkeiten reagieren, das macht das Buch interessant. Die anderen Charaktere sind nicht einfach, nicht schwarz-weiß, sondern vielschichtig und genauso ist die Geschichte selber. Man will wissen, wie es weiter geht und liest und liest. Ich habe das Buch als E-book gelesen und ein eindeutiger Nachteil waren die zu kleinen Buchstaben und viele Abstände. Trotzdem ein schnelles Buch.

Kurzbeschreibung "A dramatic story of finding yourself and the one you love" Over 100 5 Star reviews
When Elizabeth Morton's father asks her to travel to the other side of the world to marry a complete stranger, she thinks he's lost his mind. It's 1920 and a woman has rights. But her choices are removed when she is raped by her brother-in-law and thrown out of her own home by her sister. When Michael Winterbourne wakes with a hangover after his engagement celebrations, he is about to be the cause of a terrible tragedy that will destroy his family, turn his life upside down and catapult him into leaving England. Elizabeth, born into a prosperous family, and Michael, a miner, come from different worlds. They would never have met but the SS Historic, bound for Sydney, is a ship with only one class. Falling in love should have been the end to all their troubles. But fate and the mysterious Jack Kidd make sure it's only the beginning. If you like strong and interesting characters and a rollercoaster of a story with many twists and turns you will love A Greater World.

A former global marketing director, Clare Flynn lives in west London and runs a successful strategic management company. Much of her time these days is taken up with writing. She is a fluent Italian speaker and loves spending time in Italy. In her spare time she likes to quilt, splash about with watercolours and travel as often and as widely as possible. Her first novel, A Greater World, is set in the Blue Mountains of Australia in the 1920s. A second book, Kurinji Flowers, set in colonial India on a tea plantation, will follow shortly.
