Actually, it was the best romantic suspense book I've read last year. I LOVE this story and I also love the whole series! Kaylea did a great job on the research of Em's illness. My father had cancer and I KNOW what patients and family have to endure. That's really hard and very, very sad. Furthermore, I'd say that Luke handled Em's illness with absolutely great care and tenderness. He gave Em a reason to fight and to live and to love. WHAT A MAN!!! I was deeply touched by everything he said and did. And he was man enough to recognize and accept all his mistakes he made in the past. But he also knew that this would be his last chance to share a life with Em. And he gave everything he had! You just have to love such a man! He's the tough alpha male hero but deep down he's such a sweet and incredibly loving guy. The scene when he sees the scars and all and she tells him that it is ugly...sigh. And he MAKES her believe that she is beautiful to him. Always. Wow, it was incredibly beautiful - it was beyond me. Yes, the sex scenes were hot but let me tell you something: They didn't have just steamy hot sex, they were making love. There was a lot of tenderness and it was utterly palpable. Luke, I'd take you any day! Kudos, Kaylea! Keep it up!

Von Marion Schnur Abschluss der Serie. Eine gute Mischung aus Romantik und Spannung. Ich kann nur empfehlen die ganze Serie in der richtigen Reihenfolge zu lesen auch wenn jedes Buch einzeln abgeschlossen ist
