Ein bewegender JugendromanVon Matthias Wichert (MatzeNr2000@web.deDer zwlfjhrige Alan hat es nicht leicht im New York der vierziger Jahre: Er hat nur einen Freund, beim Baseball auf der Strae luft es nicht besonders, und jetzt bittet ihn seine Mutter auch noch darum, sich um das franzsische Flchtlingsmdchen Naomi zu kmmern. Ihr Vater wurde vor ihren Augen von den Nazis zu Tode geprgelt, dadurch hat Naomi einen schweren seelischen Schaden erlitten und lebt seitdem in sich selbst zurckgezogen. Zunchst widerwillig beginnt Alan, sich mit Naomi zu beschftigen, und schafft es, nach und nach ihr Vertrauen zu gewinnen. Zwischen den beiden baut sich eine innige Freundschaft auf, und Naomi fngt an, immer mehr aus sich herauszugehen. Doch leider bricht deswegen Alans Freundschaft zum Nachbarsjungen Shaun zusammen. Und obwohl es den Anschein hat, Naomi sei geheilt, ist sie trotzdem noch sehr zerbrechlich...Dieses Buch kann ich jedem empfehlen, der gerne gefhlsbetonte Geschichten liest. Die Gefhle, die der Hauptcharakter Alan in diesem Buch durchmacht, werden sehr gut beschrieben, und vor allem als jugendlicher Leser kann man sich sehr gut in ihn hineinversetzen. Darber hinaus zeigt es auch gut, welche Gefhle ein Teenager whrend der Pubertt fhlt. Ich kann dieses Buch jedem wrmstens ans Herz legen.4 von 4 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Four Star Review Von Ein Kunde Alan and Naomi is a book about a girl named Naomi and a boy named Alan. Naomi is a Jew who came from the France to the U.S. Naomi's father was killed by Nazi's while she hid watching. Alan is asked to help her come out of her shell and face the real world. Alan gets through to her with a puppet but tragically Naomi is sucked back into her shell by a disasorous outcome. I liked this book because it is a quick read but it is also detailed and leaves you hanging to the very end. Alan is always on the edge to the point where he is to get through to her when he is interrupted or she distracted. Alan then has to start all over. I think this book is good for kids around 9-12 years old. It is a book where you have to be aware of what happened and try to understand the felling of the characters.4 von 4 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich.
