No Damsel In Distress Here!Von Ein KundeI noticed a trend in her stories, and how most of the females I'd read about were in need of some kind of help or "damsels in distress". Although the back cover's description sounded disappointing, it surprised me when I discovered Catherine was no damsel in distress. In fact, she was her own brave gun-wielding woman, a spy and a fighter--and for once, a real heroine. I highly recommend this to others.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. AverageVon TooManyHobbiesThe plot of this book had great potential, but in my opinion it was never fully realized. The characters where well developed and the writing was good, but the story just never grabbed my attention. It actually took me a few days to finish this book and that is very unusual for me. I would still recommend reading it, just don't expect too much.
