Von Karen Robards : Dark of the Moon (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Dark of the Moon (English Edition):

Kurzbeschreibung"I'm not a child, Connor!" Caitlyn snapped, exasperated. "I want you to kiss me. Now. Please."For a moment longer, he resisted her gentle assault. Then he kissed her fiercely, as if starving for the taste of her mouth. Wrapping her arms around his neck, she clung to him as the only solid thing in a whirling universe. "Don't stop," she whispered when he pulled his mouth away. "Even if I wanted to, I could not," he confessed. Then he was kissing her again, with increasing hunger, as his arms slid around her and he fumbled for the buttons at the back of her dress.

Disguised as a lad, Irish street waif Caitlyn O'Malley makes what could have been a deadly mistake when she tries to rob a tall, black-haired, dazzlingly handsome aristocrat on a cobbled Dublin street. Connor d'Arcy, Earl of Iveagh, is far from the English fop he appears, as Caitlyn soon discovers. Taken under Connors protection, conveyed to his family home in the shadows of Donoughmore Castle, Caitlyn grows up into a beautiful lady and in the process finds herself falling madly in love with her enigmatic guardian. Funny, heartwarming and passionate, this sweeping tale of adventure and romance by the New York Times, USA Today and Publishers Weekly bestselling author races from an Ireland seething with rebellion to the glittering heights of London society as Irelands boldest highwayman fights for his country and to keep from falling under the spell of his own ward.

DARK OF THE MOON is the winner of Romantic Rimes ers Choice Award for Best Historical Romance Novel. Karen Robards is the six-time winner of Affaire de Coeurs Silver Pen Award for favorite romance novel. I enjoyed every minute and highly recommend it.

About the Author: Ever since I was a little girl, I've loved to write. My first book was a ten-page effort written at age five for my grandmother. Throughout grade school, high school and college I wrote for various school publications. When I was eighteen, my first professionally published piece a humorous anecdote appeared in Readers Digest. Still, it never occurred to me that I might become a professional writer. I aimed for a career as a lawyer and was actually in law school when I sold my first book. When that happened, the world lost a would-be lawyer and gained a writer. That book, which is still in print, is Island Flame, and it was published when I was twenty-four. Since then, Ive written over forty books, which regularly appear on the New York Times, USA Today, and Publishers Weekly bestseller lists, among others. The mother of three sons, I read, I write, and I chauffeur children. Thats my life.
