in medieval times. But down in his prison a man appears who rescues her from her fate. He flees with her through the woods and although she doesn't see his face because of a mask and doesn't know him except his name Michael, she soon falls in love with him. This book has been a wonderful and exciting experience. The heroine doesn't utter a single word for the first hundred pages, because her throat got hurt when she got caught. But nevertheless one never misses anything, because she is funny and the hero's able to read her face and gestures very astute. Later in the book it had me glued to my seat. I simply couldn't believe the turn of events! My jaw hit the floor and I actually had to reread the whole chapter, because I simply couldn't grasp it! But then everything made perfect sense! I really recommend you this book! It is wonderfully written (I had never (!) the urge to throttle the heroine or the hero! grin) and very fast-paced. You'll love it!!!

Kurzbeschreibung Mary wakes in the darkness of a dungeon after being abducted by a fearsome warrior. Suddenly her prison door opens to reveal a large man hidden in black shroud. He calls himself Michael, the Dark One. As a favour to his friend Magnus (from Legendary Warrior), Michael has come to rescue her. They travel across unknown territory seeking safety, and Mary falls in love with Michael's strength and kindness. But when they finally reach the protection of Magnus's home, it is to find that the warrior who had first abducted her has issued a decree: wed him, or the innocent villagers will die. Mary now must choose between her love for Michael and the lives of innocent people. Will Michael be able to save her again...or will a dark secret destroy them both?

ber den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Part of the fun in writing, Donna Fletcher admits, is doing the research. But it is with her characters that she has the most fun. She loves giving life to fresh characters and feels their excitement as they face the pleasures and pitfalls of falling in love. Donna's own adventures have taken her to England, Ireland, and Scotland. She has walked the fields where battles were fought centuries ago, toured haunted castles, stood where beheadings were commonplace, explored the mystic mounds of long ago, and collected a plethora of memories and research that will live long in her heart and mind. She also loves exploring and photographing old abandoned homes, and she often takes long walks in the woods with camera in hand. She feels her life is rich and full, having three terrific sons, two fantastic daughters-in-law, an endless supply of friends, a loving dog, and a crazy, black, one-eyed cat named Bear.
