Brilliant the way she is digging deep into the psychology of the characters.It kept me in suspense until the very few last pages..and then it let me down with a thud! So sorry to say that I didn't like the way it ended, way to shallow and abrupt. It somehow doesn't fit into this very intelligently put-together plot.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. DaughterVon JaraliThe book about a missing 15-year old girl ist a gripping story, almost unputdownable.But: The ending was more than disappointing!Why such a gifted writer like Jane Shemilt did not put more effort into a believable ending is beyond me!
