Von Richard Aldington : Death of a Hero before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Death of a Hero:

Kurzbeschreibung "Death of a Hero", published in 1929 was the author's literary response to the war. He went on to publish several works of fiction. In 1942, having moved to the United States, he began to write biographies. This last work was very controversial, as it was highly critical of the man still regarded as a war hero.
