Verwirrspiel allererster Gte - in jeglicher Hinsicht ein typischer Christie! Von Kobsteinchen Ein Mann strzt eine Klippe hinunter und wird vom Golf-spielenden Bobby gefunden - sein letzter Satz ist "Why didn't they ask Evans!" Bobby erkennt die Signifikanz dieser Worte erst sp, aber dann lassen sie ihn nicht mehr los. Nach und nach tauchen mehr Ungereimtheiten auf, bis Bobby schlielich selbst in Gefahr gert! Seine Kindheitsfreundin Lady Frances Derwent, genannt Frankie, ist berzeugt: sie mssen dem Ganzen gemeinsam auf die Spur kommen! Was folgt ist ein spannender und an Wendungen reicher Fall, wie ihn sich nur Agatha Christie ausdenken kann! Klar, man merkt dem Buch an der einen oder anderen Stelle sein Alter an (erschiene 1934!), aber wer klassische Krimis mag, kann hier nichts falsch machen. Am Ende denkt man sich, wie immer eigentlich: warum bin ich da nicht selbst drauf gekommen? Und doch ist der Plot so genial, dass das beinahe umglich ist! Wunderbare Unterhaltung, ein fabelhafter Krimi von Agatha Christie! 2 von 4 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Absolutely the best book ever - it made me a fan of Christie! Von Ein Kunde The plot is amazing and I found the detectives (Bobby and Frankie) witty, brave and altogether fun. The villain is a perfect one, one I never would have suspected. This book was complex and held my interest great. It and "Sleeping Murder" (another Christie) made me a complete fan of hers - despite her boring books (Like "What Mrs. Mugillacudy Saw" and "Easy to Kill") Also check out "And Then There Were None" - also amazing. By the way, I am very picky, and if I like it, these books must be good!! 2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Thoroughly enjoyable Von Wild Leopard When Bobby Jones plays golf with his friend Dr Thomas, he chips the ball over a cliff - where an unconscious man lies. While the doctor goes to get help, Bobby stays with the man - who speaks just one sentence before he dies. "Why didn't they ask Evans?" Now, what exactly did he mean by that? Who is the mysterious Evans? And who is the girl of a photograph found in the dead man's pocket? Together with his childhood friend Frankie, Bobby wants to find out more about the case, especially since he is not quite satisfied with the verdict of an "accident"... I found this book thoroughly enjoyable. The story is quite an adventure, wonderful in its description of the characters and rich in excitement due to impersonating, kidnapping and romance...
