reluctantVon emmaes hte so schn sein knnen... junge lehrerin, die von ihrer pensionatsleiterin nach deren tod eine art versorgung bekommt - in form eines zuknftigen ehemannes.klingt doch gut. wie werden die beiden sich verstehen, wie entwickelt sich ihre beziehung....dramatisch, wie grausam das schicksal der armen heldin mitspielt - aber auch das ist ja ein bekanntes und beliebtes element dieser art von literatur.oh, wie bse sind die bsen! (ekelerregend bse, mu ich sagen, ein paar schattierungen weniger schlimm htten es fr mich auch getan)das was wirklich schlimm ist, sind die stndigen fragen, fragen, fragen, fragen, die die handlung nicht flieen lassen. die gedanken, die alles durchdringen und kaputtmachen. mal ein bichen, um zu zeigen, da die personen keine gedankenlosen marionetten sind (auch wenn sie sich wie marionetten fhlen knnten, weil andere ber ihr schicksal entscheiden wollen)und bitte band 2 und drei nicht unmittelbar danach lesen - die erotischen szenen und manch andere dialoge sind zum teil WRTLICH gleich.
