Wine RosesVon BethNot many romance novels deal with the issue of an aging single woman who is attractive because of her age, and I found this topic very refreshing. The sizzling love scenes are well conceived and composed, and I relished every word of them. There were some twists in the plot that I didn't expect, and I enjoyed the way the ghost story interweaved with the love story, culminating in a powerful and absorbing ending. I highly recommend this novel.

KurzbeschreibungA sensual romance novella from USA TODAY bestselling author Susan R. Hughes.A widow at forty-two, Abby Wells has poured her heart into the restoration of The Roses Inn, a historic Niagara-on-the Lake establishment reputedly haunted by a 19th-century ghost. In walks Jason Brinleigh, a gorgeous winery owner nine years Abbys junior, intent on buying the place from her. The transaction falls by the wayside as Abby and Jason fall for each other. But the scars left by past loves run deep, challenging them both to surrender their hearts. When unexpected events threaten to tear them apart, will it take a little intervention from the spirit world to set things right?KurzbeschreibungA sensual romance novella from USA TODAY bestselling author Susan R.
