More Barrayar!Von Constant BookwormI love this series and I find it a shame that we are getting less books, now the characters have all become sessile. Anyway, in this one Armsmann Roic and the fearsome Taura have an adventure all to themselves, while Miles gets married in the background. Brilliant as always. Witty, tidily plotted.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. wie immer sehr amasant Von Melanie Lehmann Auch wenn Miles in diesem Buch nicht die Hauptperson war, war es spannend und actionreich, voller Situationskomik und natrlich zeigt es mal wieder, welche Vorurteile und ngste auch ganz normale Leute haben (knnen) und wie diese berwunden werden knnen.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Very good Von Previna D.a complementary to the full novels very much worth readingI like the whole series, the style. Intensive reading enjoyment with time and money well spent .

Kurzbeschreibung Miles Vorkosigan and his fiance Ekaterin are enjoying the Winterfair festivities and wedding gifts on their home planet Barrayar, but Miles enemies are at work. Sergeant Taura, a genetically engineered young woman Miles befriended, helps uncover the sinister plot. A double dose of romance enlivens this delightful novella in the New York Times bestselling Vorkosigan saga.- A NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR -"Bujold is one of the best writers of SF adventures to come along in years."- Locus Bujold is not just a master of plot, she is a master of emotion.- SF Site A superb craftsman and stylist, Ms. Bujold is well on her way to becoming one of the great voices of speculative fiction. - Rave s Bujold has a gift, nearly unique in science fiction, for the comedy of manners. - Chicago Sun Times Superb far-future saga.- Publishers Weekly on the 'Vorkosigan' series Bujold's "work remains among the most enjoyable and rewarding in contemporary SF."- Publishers Weekly Lois McMaster Bujold was born in 1949, the daughter of an engineering professor at Ohio State University, from whom she picked up her early interest in science fiction. She now lives in Minneapolis, and has two grown children. She began writing with the aim of professional publication in 1982. She wrote three novels in three years; in October of 1985, all three sold to Baen Books, launching her career. Bujold went on to write many other books for Baen, mostly featuring her popular character Miles Naismith Vorkosigan, his family, friends, and enemies. Her books have been translated into over twenty languages. Her fantasy from Eos includes the award-winning Chalion series and the Sharing Knife series.
