people, two love stories Von ladybug10 Zoe and Lyssa Cash have been to hell and back in the past six years. Now they have each other and their island home, Abrigo, a refuge from the rigors of the past, where they run a bed and breakfast. Into this safe paradise come two very disturbed and disturbing men: Deke Nielsen and Yeager Gates. Deke is on an errand of family business, tying up loose ends from an estate left to him; his friend Yeager is accompanying him on a vacation that is part recuperation and part running away. Once upon a time, Yeager was the country's golden boy astronaut hero; now, he is a disabled pilot who has been permanently excluded from the space program. However, Zoe, Lyssa, and Deke have also suffered losses which have left scars. These three have figured out how to survive - although they have also been left more than a little stunted, in various ways, in the process. Yeager has not reached that survivorship point, and is still struggling alternately with rage, grief, and denial. The life lines of these four people intersect on a tiny island off the coast of California, as CR tells four stories of loss, change, and love. These characters are wonderfully written as the attachments and sexual tension develop between them. There is no big subplot or mystery in this book, just an unfolding of relationships in a protected, greenhouse-like environment. This allowed me to get caught up in the people-part of the story without distraction. Zoe's insecurities, in particular, are both poignantly and realistically portrayed. This is one of the most enjoyable stories I've read, and I wish I could give it six stars. The trailers on the back of the book make it come off a little flippant. Don't take them too seriously. By the way, don't read too fast through the mud fight. It's so well written that you'll feel like you're part of it, and it's a scream.....1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Yeager and Zoe will capture your heart. Von Ein Kunde What a wonderful love story. I, too, purchased this book after reading the great reviews and I loved it. Yeager and Zoe have such a magical bond that can't be denied. I would definitely recommend this book to any romantics out there, and to anyone who needs a little romance back in their lives. You won't be able to put it down, but when you do you'll pick it back up and read it again. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. A Most Excellent and Funny Love Story Von Shannon Zoe and Yeager seem to be complete opposites. Maybe the saying "opposites attract" really is true? While Yeager is recouping from a horrible motorcycle accident, his friend brings him to Zoe's island paradise to recover. Zoe is known more for fixing up everyone else and never thinks she will be the one to be "terminally fixed". Yeager can't see due to medical circumstances from the wreck. When Yeager meets Zoe he is sensorily charged to the bone in her presence. He falls for her and she does the same. Zoe just knows that when Yeager's vision is returned to normal, she will be history with the sexy Astronaut whose known for his wild party boy life style and the gorgeous women who are constantly pictured with him in all the magazines. Zoe has another thing coming. The subplot with Zoe's sister and Yeager's friend will move you too. I enjoyed this book and there was some wonderful sexual tension and some great comical moments in it. Hope you enjoy it too!
