KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Witty and not your routin shifter romanceVon Hoener, BirgitNot only shifters, but fae/fairies and witches as well, add to that a good plot and narration style, and you cannot go wrong with this book.Although the language is sometimes very simple, fairy-tale like, on the whole it is adequate and keeps the reader glued to the book. The plot surprised me a bit, as it was not the usual human-meets-shifter and falls in love leading to mainly sex scenes, but apart from the two protagonists falling for each other, they also have to save the shifters and good fae from danger by dark fae - a refreshing change from the what I call "shifter-routine-novels". The leading and secondary characters were well developed, the dialogues were witty, and the whole book was fun to read. I would not mind reading further sequels and see how the other characters fare.

Kurzbeschreibung Can a witch accept that she's the mate to an alpha werewolf? Rafe loves her deeply, now he has to convince her. Visiting her friend in the small east Texas town of Wolf Creek, Lisa is shocked when she learns that shifters are real, and even more shocked when a light Fae warrior informs her she's a witch. But this is just the beginning of her journey... Werewolves, shifters, light and dark Fae creatures. Who knew? She'd always been a little intuitive, a little bit different. But wasn't everyone? Rafe is the alpha of the east Texas pack and according to him, her mate. Keeping his new mate safe from an evil Fae will take the strength of his pack and the help of their magical friends. The Queen of Faery gave all shifters the ability to change their mates in the enchanted water. Lisa will have to decide if she wants to enter the water with Rafe and make the change to become a werewolf and be his mate forever. Magical beings come together to banish evil once and for all.

ber den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Jo Ellen lives in North Texas with her husband and three kids, one dog, two cats, and a pond full of Koi. She loves reading, gardening, and anything on HGTV and The Food Network. Jo Ellen enjoys writing books about paranormal/supernatural individuals who work together to fight evil. Throw in a little humor with powerful women and the alpha males who want to protect them and you will see their personalities clash. In the best way, of course. "I like my characters to have a sense of humor, with lots of dialogue. I try to make each character an individual so that reading my series does not come across as, different book...interchangeable names..."
