There were so much scenes that reminded me of Twilight... I guess the author is a huge fan and read the book again and again. In some points the similarity between the scenes was quite annoying. The characters don't have any depth or real background. I didn't warm up to them.Even though I'm just learning the english language, I found quite some mistakes and strange sentences in this book.But, it was a relaxing nice story, so it's three stars after all. You just shouldn't expect to much.Das Buch hat mich nicht wirklich berzeugt. Sehr viele Szenen erinnern an Twilight. Vielleicht hat die Autorin es ein paar mal zu oft gelesen. An manchen Stellen waren die Parallelen so gro, dass es mich genervt hat.Auch die Charaktere sind nicht gut heraus gearbeitet, man kann sich nicht wirklich in sie hinein versetzen.Leider sind selbst mir, die ich sicher nicht fehlerfrei Englisch spreche und schon gar nicht schreibe einige Fehler und abenteuerliche Satzkonstruktionen aufgefallen, die so sicher nicht korrekt sind.Aber trotz allem war die Story ein netter Zeitvertreib, auch wenn man alles irgendwie schon mal gesehen und gelesen hat. Daher 3 Sterne. Wenn man nicht zu viel erwartet, passt das schon.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. "Xoe Meyers had a normal life. So she was stuck going to high school, and she only had a few friends to call her own." So says the author Sara C. Roethle, but small town girl Xoe life changes dramatically when the hot new guy moves to town, not only does Xoe has a thing for him, there is the other guy she doesnt trust, this was one big pile of hot YA love triangle drama, fun-filled loving adventure that you just have to keep reading until the very last page. It is un-put-downable.Al-Khemet Book Club AUG 2015
