KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 3 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Chick-lit meets paranormal!Von AmberChick-lit meets paranormal again in this 3rd helping of the 'Dead End Dating' series.

Not so much 'real' dating for our dating service heroine Lil this time round but a lot of action and a pet keep her busy enough! I really enjoyed this one and the author manages to make this chick-lit and paranormal mix really well! Not too over the top and not too down your throat both genres are brought together to make a fun and entertaining story that will appeal to readers of both areas. Oh and I think Countess Lil and Queen Betsy (MaryJanice Davidson's Undead series) should get together for a bottle of O neg! They would be such perfect friends!!!

Kurzbeschreibung BEING DEAD CAN KILL A SOCIAL LIFE! For Lil Marchette, the owner of Manhattan's premier dating service for vampires (and a dazzling denizen of the dark herself), death is all in a night's work. Unfortunately, it's going to take more than matching up vamps to pay the bills and fund Lil's cosmetics addiction. Dare she add actual humans to the mix? Eager to diversify, she signs up for a popular dating show, Manhattan's Most Wanted (MMW), to pitch her expertise to the perfect target audience: eligible women looking for eligible men. Of course Lil is trying to forget the one man she'd love to sink her own teeth into: Ty Bonner, the ultraseductive vamp who broke her heart after she gave him the hottest night of his afterlife. Problem is, she and Ty have an intense mental connection and she's sensing he's in deep trouble. Even worse, she soon finds herself heading for MMW's grand finale (cameras are so not a vamp's best friend). The race is on as Lil struggles to save Ty (and herself) before all hell breaks loose. Lil is a likable mix of Bridget Jones, Carrie Bradshaw and Dracula: charming, sweet, stylish, with just a hint of fang. Parkersburg News and Sentinel From the Paperback edition.
